Winery Of The Month November 2026
Mauro Molino

As the days grow shorter and the evenings settle earlier over Zurich, few wines are better suited to the season than those of Mauro Molino. Nestled in the renowned village of La Morra, the family estate has been crafting elegant, terroir-driven wines since 1982, with a particular focus on Nebbiolo from some of Barolo's most prestigious vineyards. The limestone-rich soils of La Morra lend the wines finesse, freshness, and aromatic complexity, making them a perfect match for the comforting flavors of autumn. Whether enjoyed alongside venison, or slow-braised dishes, Mauro Molino's Barolos bring depth, structure, and warmth to the table, capturing the very essence of Piedmont in late autumn.

What Our Team Is Drinking At The Moment

We all work here because we love to enjoy outstanding food with delicious wines. One that has recently got our interest is:

Pauline

I'll admit I'm always drawn to wines with a bit of structure and personality, and the Alfiera from Marchesi Alfieri is exactly the kind of bottle I love coming back to. It has that beautiful combination of ripe dark cherry fruit, subtle spice, and just enough richness to make an impression, while still feeling fresh and incredibly elegant. What I enjoy most is the way it balances power with energy. There's depth and concentration, but nothing feels heavy or overworked. It's the kind of wine that naturally brings people around the table together and seems to get even better as the evening unfolds.
For me, it's a wonderful expression of Piedmont: generous, refined, and full of character.
Perfect alongside braised meats, grilled beef, or simply good company and a great conversation.

2022 Alfiera, Barbera d'Asti Superiore, Marchesi Alfieri, Piemonte, Italia, 75cl, 135 CHF

Julian

Working my whole life in luxury hospitality, I've had the chance to taste some exceptional Champagnes, and Agrapart Avize is one I always come back to. Tend to be drawn to wines that offer both depth and definition, I love how this Blanc de Blancs combines vibrant freshness with real substance. Notes of citrus, brioche, and chalky minerality are carried by a beautiful texture and remarkable length, giving the wine both elegance and presence.
For me, it's a Champagne that proves finesse and intensity can go hand in hand, making every glass feel a little special.
As the autumn days grow shorter, I especially enjoy it alongside roasted chicken with a creamy sauce, where the Champagne's freshness beautifully balances the richness of the dish.

Atoma, Brut Nature, Agrapart Avize, Champagne, France, 75cl, 180 CHF

Last Bottles

Be fast; of these bottles we only managed to get hold of very few, and the next vintage is already on its way... as the Swiss say "s'hät solangs hät".
